Rev. John Peck, } Committee.
S. A. Neale,

One of the most eloquent and thrilling lectures ever heard by an audience in this city was delivered in the Franklin street M. E. Church last evening, by Mrs. Frances Ellen Watkins Harper. We have heard Mrs. Harper compared, for power as a speaker, with Miss Dickinson; but, having heard both, we have no hesitation in giving the palm of superiority to Mrs. Harper. She combines, perhaps, equal vigor of thought and comprehensiveness of view, while she possesses more eloquence of utterance, and a more keen, penetrating and facile wit.—Newark Courier.

Bill Shakspeare and Cassius.

"Let me have men about me that are fat, sleek headed men—Yon Cassius has a lean and hungry look; such men are dangerous," So said Shakspeare. Now Cassius, like many another simple man, was slim because he knew not how to appreciate good living. If he were living to-day he would not be reproached because lean, for at Holtzheimer's Continental Saloon, he would repair like all sensible men do, and partake of the splendidly gotten up meals and be as sleek and fat as his tormentor. Cassius would appreciate Holtzheimer's bill of fare and would be one of the numerous patrons who throng this popular restaurant day and night. As Cassius is dead, we can only advise lean men like him to patronize no other restaurant than the Continental, next door to the Post office Fifth street, unless they want to keep lean and spare-boned.

On Friday evening, two boys, named Ellsworth and Wilson, about seventeen years of age, left their homes in Rochester, N. Y., armed with an old musket and a single barreled pistol, with the express determination of murdering the first man they should meet in the highway. Outside the city, near the bridge, in the town of Irondequoit, they jumped into a sleigh in which was a German named Kraffts; they shot him in the back of his head with a pistol, wounding him dangerously. The young desperadoes returned home this morning, and about noon were arrested. They confess all and say that before meeting Kraffts they jumped into several sleighs but had no favorable opportunity to shoot.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS.

(SECOND SESSION.)

Washington, February 23, 1867.

SENATE.

TO PROHIBIT PAYMENT OF CLAIMS OF REBELS.

Mr. TRUMBULL called up the House joint resolution to prohibit any officer of the Government from paying any claim accruing prior to the 13th of April, 1861, in favor of any person who promoted, encouraged, or in any manner sustained the rebellion; or in favor of any person who, during the rebellion, was not known as opposed thereto, and distinctly in favor of its suppression.

The Senate Judiciary Committee recommended striking out all after the word "rebellion," where it first occurred.

Mr. TRUMBULL said he was not in favor of this amendment, but the majority of the Committee were.

Mr. JOHNSON spoke in favor of the amendment.

Mr. HENDRICKS understood the object of the bill was to prevent the payment of military officers who joined the rebellion. He had no objection to this, and to accomplish this the words proposed to be stricken out were not necessary.

The amendment was agreed to.

Mr. FOGG offered an amendment that this resolution shall not be construed to prevent the payment of claims on contracts made prior to April 13, 1861, with loyal citizens of the Southern States. Agreed to.

Mr. HOWE offered an amendment, to add after the word rebellion, where it first occurs, the following words: "or in favor of any person who does not prove to the satisfaction of proper accounting officers that he was opposed to rebellion and in favor of its suppression."

This was adopted—25 yeas, 8 nays; Messrs. Buckalew, Davis, Doolittle, Hendricks, Cowan, Johnson, Dixon and Patterson voting nay. The joint resolution, as amended, passed.

INTRODUCTION OF FOREIGN GOODS.

Mr. EDMUNDS, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill prohibiting the introduction of foreign goods into the United States without inspection, at the usual ports of entry; also the House bill to authorise light-houses, with an amendment fixing specific amounts for each—including Mendota, Lake Superior, $14,000; Trowbridge's Point, Michigan, $10,000.

THE DARIEN SHIP CANAL.

THE INDIAN APPROPRIATION BILL.

The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up. It appropriates $2,700,000. The House proviso, that no part of the appropriation for the expenses of the Indians of Colorado shall be disbursed by Alexander Cummings, was struck out. Thirty-three thousand dollars was added to the bill to make good the Indian funds lost by deposit in the Merchants National Bank, Washington.

Mr. SHERMAN opposed the whole Indian treaty system as a farce. He would be willing, however, to make appropriations from year to year for the support of our Indian obligations.

Mr. HENDERSON offered an amendment appropriating $115 per head for the support of 6,000 Navajo Indians, held prisoners of war in New Mexico.

Evening Session.—Mr SHERMAN offered a substitute for Mr. Henderson's amendment, which appropriates $100,000 for the relief of Navajo Indians, prisoners in New Mexico, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, provided no rations be issued there by the Secretary of War after July 1st. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. WILLIAMS, it was agreed that all vacancies in sub-Indian agencies of a salary greater than $1,000 shall hereafter be filled by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate.

On motion of Mr. HENDERSON, an appropriation for the Indians in Arizona was raised to $16,000.

Mr. HENDERSON offered an amendment appropriating $20,000 to pay the expenses of the Fort Kearney Massacre Investigating Committee.

After a lengthy discussion on other amendments, not agreed to, the bill passed.

The amendment, as modified, was agreed to.

On motion of Mr. HOGAN, $40,000 was appropriated for the removal of sunken wrecks from the Mississippi river.

When brought into Court, his hands were handcuffed, but at the request of his counsel the Court ordered them to be released, and the indictment was read to him by the clerk. Surratt entered the plea "Not Guilty." The clerk asked, "How will you be tried?" to which the response was made, "By my own countrymen," when the officer added, "Then may God send you a safe deliverance." The handcuffs were then replaced and the prisoner remanded to jail. There was no excitement manifested during his presence in Court.

No day has yet been fixed for Surratt's trial, but it is thought it will take place in March.

The President has also approved the bill abolishing the office of Superiendent of Public Printing, and providing for the election of a Congressional printer by the Senate. Mr. Defrees, who was removed to give place to Mr. Wendell, will undoubtedly be elected.

The President has also approved the bill to establish and protect national cemeteries.

HAVE BECOME LAWS WITHOUT THE PRESIDENT'S APPROVAL.

The following named bills have become laws:

First—That before the first meeting of the next Congress, and of every subsequent Congress, the Clerk of the next preceding House of Representatives shall make a roll of the Representatives elect, and place thereon the names of all persons claiming seats as Representatives elect from States which were represented the next preceding Congress, and of such persons only, and whose credentials show that they were regularly elected in accordance with the laws of their States respectively or the laws of the United States.

Second—Declaring the sense of an act restricting the jurisdiction of the Court of Claims. It provides the law shall not be construed to authorize the settlement of any claim of supplies or stores taken or furnished for the use of armies, or injury to property where the claim originated during the war for the suppression of the Southern rebellion in a State declared in insurrection by the proclamation of the President, or in a State which, by an ordinance of secession, attempted to withdraw from the United States Government. Provided, That nothing in this law shall repeal or modify the effect of any act or joint resolution extending the provisions of the act of July, 1864, to the loyal citizens of Tennessee or West Virginia.

These four bills were received by the President on the 9th instant, but not having been returned by him to the House in which they originated, within the time prescribed by the Constitution of the United States, they have become laws without his approval.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

The Judiciary Committee is engaged in the examination of witnesses on the Impeachment affair; there is no possibility of a report at this session.

INDIAN DELEGATIONS.

The delegations of the Indian tribes now in the city waited on the President on Saturday, and were presented by Commissioner Bogy. Secretary Browning also accompanied them. The President made a few remarks, to the effect that there would be nothing left undone which a great and powerful nation can do for the protection of its wards, the Indians.

CORRESPONDENCE WITH FOREIGN MINISTERS.

The President has transmitted to the Senate a mass of documents from the Secretary of State in answer to the resolution of that body, calling for the correspondence with Foreign Ministers, and Consuls in relation to the policy of the President towards the States lately in rebellion; and especially any enquiries by the Departments of State with regard to the conversations or opinions of such Foreign Ministers. The documents embrace dispatches from Messrs. Clay, King, Sanford, Bigelow, Adams, Morris, Murphy, McMath and Perry, covering a period of more than two years. All the parties addressed on the subject denied the charges, and their denials are received and declared satisfactory.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PLAN IN VIRGINIA.

A Richmond dispatch intimates that Virginia will very probably be the first of the Southern States to fall into line under the new congressional plan of reconstruction. Gov. Pierpont was in counsel with the State Senate last evening, and advised the speedy endorsement of the plan. His views seemed to meet with general approbation. It is generally believed the Legislature will pass a bill calling a convention of the people, and accepting negro suffrage upon the terms of the congressional bill.

The first evening reception of Secretary McCulloch last night, was one of the most brilliant and select of the season, a large number of most distinguished personages being present.

THE RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The Tribune's special says: The Cabinet had a session on the reconstruction bill on Friday. The President would sign the bill, but for the section dividing the States into military districts. The other sections are not so objectionable, though he much preferred the simple Blaine amendment.

THE PRESIDENT'S LEVEE.

The last Presidential levee of the season came off on Friday. It was large, fashionable, and brilliant beyond precedent. The rush was so great that at times it was found impossible to either get in or out of the Executive Mansion. The President was busy for three hours receiving his guests, who seemed to come from every section of the nation. The military and naval branches of the government were resplendent in position and uniform. As an illustration of the immense attendance, the fact may be stated that at one time people were so jammed and crowded at the entrance and in the corridors that a despatch was sent to the nearest police station, for a detail of twenty-five policemen, who arrived quickly on the spot, and aided persons in getting out. Ladies fainted, men had their collars, coats and vests torn, while the wardrobe of the ladies also suffered severely. Young misses and boys were trampled on and bruised, and it was a miracle that older persons got off without serious injury. At one period some were rescued who had been crampled up in a corner for an hour. It was by all odds the largest reception ever witnessed at the Executive Mansion.

PROFESSOR BACH'S SUCCESSOR.

Professor Pierce, of Cambridge, will be tendered, it is understood, the appointment of Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Professor Bache.

FROM MEXICO.

Reports of Imperialist Reverses—Miramon Defeated near Zacatecas—A General Crumbling of the Imperial Power—Juarez Ready to Enter the City of Mexico.

Havana, February 20.—The French steamer arrived here on the 18th, with dates from Vera Cruz to the 13th, and from the City of Mexico to the 9th inst.

The report that President Juarez had been taken prisoner grew out of the unexpected attack made by Miramon, with 3,000 men, upon Zacatecas. Miramon's official dispatch says that Juarez escaped, owing to the velocity of his carriage. Escobedo arrived upon the scene the next day, and gave battle to Miramon at San Jacinto, and completely routed him, taking 8,000 prisoners, and capturing all his artillery and four thousand dollars.

At last accounts Miramon had arrived at Queretaro with only four officers.

Liceago, the Imperial commander of Guanajiato, had been defeated by Rincongaiaredo, and that city had fallen into the hands of the Liberals.

Maximilian's minister, Taber, with a strong brigade, was routed while coming from Tabula to reinforce the capital, and left 500 dead and wounded on the field of battle.

The bearer of official dispatches for the French steamer, was stopped by Porfirio Diaz, who is encamped between Puebla and Mexico.

It is reported at Vera Cruz that Juarez had left Zacatecas for San Louis, three days before Miramon made his sudden attack upon that place.

Marquez was reported to have 10,000 men at the city of Mexico, of whom only 4,000 were armed.

Eight hundred soldiers garrisoning Puebla had declared for the republic, and it was expected that as soon as the French had left Puebla, the remainder would take possession of the city, and pronounce for Juarez.

Generals Castelnau, Repotier, and others, and also Madame Bazaine have arrived at Havana, on the French steamer, which takes out to France eight hundred and sixty-eight passengers.

The transport Ionic was to leave Vera Cruz on the 15th with twelve hundred troops.

Several members of Maximilian's ministery were also among the passengers on board of the French steamer at Havana.

Marshal Bazaine arrived in Puebla on the 6th instant.

The small pox continues in Mantanzas, but Havana is healthy, and the weather is delightful.

Brownsville, Feb. 20, via New Orleans, February 24.—Advices from San Luis Potosi of the 6th state that an engagement took place on the 4th inst., in a defile known as La Gollenera, between the forces of Miramon, under Castello and General Rochea, with Escobedo's command of 1,000 men. The Liberals were defeated and 300 or 400 were killed. Most of the Liberal leaders were either wounded or taken prisoners, Only five escaped.

Castello, after the victory, was seriously threatened by Carovojal, while endeavoring to reach Fueretoro by forced marches. Escobedo had ordered all volunteer foreigners found in Miramon's army to be shot for depredations committed at Zacatecas.

Ortego remained at Seltello, under arrest.

The official journal of Monterey, of the 16th and 17th, says the Governor of the State is occupied with preparations for the departure of the French, Austrian and Belgian prisoners at Matamoras. They are to be exchanged for the Mexicans brought to that place by a French frigate. The order for their departure is now waited for from Escabedo.

The Ministry of the interior of Mexico justifies the butchery of one hundred and ninety foreigners captured from Miramon, and charge them with all the depredations committed at Zacatecas.

Doctors say General Mejia cannot recover.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Fourth Page.—The fullest and most reliable Money, Oil and Produce Market Reports given by any paper in the city, will be found on our Fourth Page.

An Act for the Better Preservation of the Public Health of Allegheny County.

We publish below a bill introduced into the Legislature, by Mr. McKee, of the House, which, in all probability, will meet with the decided opposition of our oil refiners and others engaged in businesses which will be effectually killed in this county should the bill become a law. It is badly drawn up, and we trust so wild a scheme for the preservation of the public health will not be adopted. Here it is:

An Act to prevent the depositing of unwholesome matter in the running streams in Allegheny county, and to provide for the better preservation of the public health in said county.

Be it enacted, &c., Sec. 1. That any person throwing, casting or placing in any spring, well or stream of running water in the county of Allegheny, any acids, benzine, or other hurtful, deleterious or poisonous substances, or refuse matter, or wilfully or negligently permitting the same to escape into, or be carried therein in any way, shall be guilty of a high misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not more than $300, and be imprisoned not less than thirty days, nor more than six months.

Sec. 2. The carrying on or prosecution of any noxious or unwholesome trade or business, prejudicial to health is hereby forbidden within the corporate limits of any municipality within said county of Allegheny, and any person convicted of a violation of this section, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $300 for the first offence; and upon a second conviction for said offence, be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than one year.

Allegheny County Teachers' Association.

This Association met last Saturday in Neville Hall, Fourth street.

The President, Professor Jones, occupied the chair. Prayer was offered by Professor L. H. Eaton. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Professor Jones then delivered his Valedictory Address. It was a well written production, handling with a good deal of severity the extremists in religion, moral reform and politics.

Professor L. E. Wakeham then delivered his Inaugural. It gave an able review of the history of the association, alluding to the many trials it had encountered and the complete success that had been attained, through the persevering efforts of earnest teachers. The future, in our educational interests, be regarded as more hopeful than the past.

On motion of Professor Eaton, a committee of three ladies, consisting of Miss McHendry, of the Second ward, Allegheny; Miss Ralston, of the Sixth ward and Miss Burns, of the Eighth ward, were to receive queries on any points connected with teachers or school management, about which any member may desire information, and present a report at each meeting, in which the queries shall be fully answered.

A resolution was also adopted, requesting the Executive Committee to make arrangements to provide suitable music for future meetings.

The regular lecturer, Rev. W. B. Watkins, was unavoidably absent. On motion adjourned.

Amusements.

For the Worthy Poor.—Our readers will not fail to remember, that on Wednesday evening next, the Grand Sacred and Secular Concert for the benefit of the worthy poor, will take place at City Hall. This entertainment will be no ordinary one, but will equal any musical treat ever offered in our city as the reader may judge from the programme which appears elsewhere. The entire proceeds will be devoted to the benefit and alleviation of the distresses of the worthy poor of the city without destruction of color or creed. We desire to see the hall filled to overflowing, and if it is not, it will be a blot upon the christian character of the community.

New Opera House.—The charming favorite, Miss Charlotte Thompson, has been reengaged at this place of amusement for six nights longer. She appears to-night in two characters in the great drama of the "Sea of Ice."

Varieties Theatre.—This regenerated place of popular amusement is drawing crowded houses, and as well it should under the present first class management. Never before has the entertainment been of a higher character, or the stock company so talented and versatile. For an evening of rare sport, go to the Varieties Theatre.

House Blown Down.—At twelve o'clock on Saturday night, an unoccupied frame house, belonging to Jas. Lafferty, and standing on Poplar alley, between Washington and Elm streets, was blown down by the high wind prevailing at that time. The house fell with a tremendous crash, rousing the whole neighborhood. The building was undergoing repairs, and was propped up on timbers. The structure was pretty effectually wrecked.

Improvement of the Western Rivers—Meeting of the Board of Trade.

The Board of Trade held a special meeting on Saturday morning last, to receive the report of the Committee appointed to represent the city at the recent River Improvement Convention, held at St. Louis. There was a full attendance on the part of the business community, and the meeting was organized by electing John Shipton Esq., to the chair, and W. W. Ward, Esq. as Secretary. Levi Matthews, Esq., Chairman of the Committee, delivered the report which stated that a pamphlet containing the proceedings of the Convention would be shortly furnished, and the Committee earnestly recommend the co-operation of the Board of Trade in the great work of improving the great national arteries of commerce—the Mississippi and Ohio rivers. The vast coal trade, iron, glass and other manufacturing interests should demand that Congress give this matter earnest attention, and to endeavor to secure appropriations from the Government sufficient to remove all obstructions to navigation from Pittsburgh to St. Anthony, and from St. Anthony to the Gulf of Mexico.

The resolutions accompanying this report, returned thanks to the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, the authorities and citizens of St. Louis, and others, for courtesies extended.

Provided for the appointment of a committee by public meeting to be assembled at the call of the Mayor of Pittsburgh, to present the claims of the city in behalf of Western river improvements.

That the interests of the whole Mississippi valley require the immediate improvement by the National Government, of the Mississippi river, from the Balize to the Falls of St. Anthony, including especially, the bar at the Balize, and the Upper and Lower Rapids, and the removal of obstructions above these rapids; and also the Ohio river, from Cairo to Pittsburgh, and especially the work at the Falls of the Ohio. Said improvement to secure the navigation of said river free from all tolls or tribute.

That Congress should so legislate on the subject of bringing the Mississippi and other navigable streams of the United States, as will, while recognizing the equal importance of railroad and river transportation, harmonize those interests by securing proper facilities for both.

That when the financial condition of the country may justify, Congress be requested to cause proper investigation to be made as to the necessity of improving hereafter, all the other rivers of the Mississippi Valley.

On motion, the report was accepted, the resolutions adopted and the committee discharged.

The chair, in accordance with the resolution contained in the report, appointed the following gentlemen as a committee to confer with Mayor McCarthy in regard to calling a public meeting of the citizens to further the object of the late Convention: Captain R. C. Gray, W. H. Brown, Joseph Walton, John F. Dravo, and B. F. Jones.

On motion of W. W. Ward, Esq., it was ordered that a set of American colors be presented to the "Great Republic" when completed, as a tribute from the Board of Trade to the public spirit of the gentleman who were concerned in the erection of this Great Eastern of the western waters.

On motion adjourned.

Opening of the New Baptist Church.

Yesterday morning the new and beautiful First Baptist Church, a description of which we gave a few days ago, was formally dedicated to the worship of Almighty God, Rev. James S. Dickerson, the zealous pastor, officiating. The exercises, of a very interesting character, were participated in by the members of the church and a large number of strangers. The dedicatory sermon of Rev. Mr. Dickerson was one of his ablest and most eloquent efforts, and was listened to with marked interest and attention. A collection was taken up for the church fund, which realized nearly forty-five hundred dollars. The subscriptions ranged from one dollar up to sixteen hundred dollars, and we might here add that all the money collected, with the exception perhaps of about one hundred dollars, was from the members of the congregation. Considering the vast sums already subscribed towards the erection of the church, the collection yesterday was another evidence of the spirit of liberality and zeal which characterizes the members

The opening of the new Sabbath School chapel in the afternoon was also largely attended. The little ones were highly delighted and pleased with the beautiful and enticing schoolroom, with its circular pews, new library and sparkling fountain. The exercises opened with a fervent prayer offered to the Throne of Grace, by Rev. Mr. Dickerson, and the singing of a number of pretty Sabbath school hymns by the teachers and scholars. Mr. E. D. Jones, of the Benton Mission Sunday Schools of St. Louis, then delivered a feeling address to the children, which was followed by an address of much strength and beauty by Rev. Mr. Dickerson. After the singing of several hymns and benediction from the pastor, the school was dismissed, the children retiring with hearts full of joy and gladness over their "pretty new Sabbath School."

In the evening, services were also held, Rev. Mr. Dickerson occupying the pulpit, and the church being filled to its utmost capacity.

Seriously Injured.

At about half past ten o'clock on Saturday morning an accident occurred on board the steamboat Elizabeth, plying between this city and Elizabethtown, which resulted in the serious injury of Garret Wall, employed as deck-hand on the boat. The boat was just leaving Lock No. 1, and the chimneys were being lowered, so that it could pass under the Birmingham bridge. One of the deck hands who was assisting in this operation allowed the line attached to the chimneys to slip from his grasp, and they came down with a crash. Wall was standing on the hurricane deck, and was struck on the side of the head, sustaining a severe wound. His collar bone was also broken, and he was considerably bruised. Dr. McCook was called and dressed his injuries. Wall resides in Elizabeth, is about fifty-five years of age, and has a large family dependent upon him. He has not been conscious since the accident occurred, and it is feared that his injuries will prove fatal. He was removed to his home in Elizabethtown, on Saturday afternoon.

Assaulted on the Suspension Bridge.

On Saturday evening, officer McMullen, of the city police, arrested a young man named Peter Suter, of Allegheny, charged with assault and battery on Albert H. Holthouse. It is alleged that at a late hour on Thursday night the prosecutor was crossing the St. Clair street bridge in a wagon, when he was met by the defendant, who caught the bridle rein of the horse and refused to let go. The occupant of the wagon got out when the defendant, as is stated, attacked him. The prosecutor defended himself by hitting his assailant several times over the head with the butt of his whip, when he left him. The defendant is clerk in a liquor store on Ohio street, near the Diamond, in Allegheny. He gave bail for a hearing.

Burglarious Attempt.

At a late hour on Friday night some burglars made an attempt to enter the clothing store of Wm. Vogel, No. 162 Smithfield street, but fortunately the effort was unsuccessful. The thieves succeeded in gaining access to a yard attached to the store, and commenced on a shutter of a window in the rear part of the building. One panel had been partially cut out, but the opening was not sufficiently large to admit the rascals. It is probable that the operators became frightened, and fled before completing their means of entrance.

The Temperance Convention.—Hundreds of our citizens will doubtless attend the great State Temperance Convention which assembles in Harrisburg to-morrow. As many more would attend if the railroad company had consented to issue excursion tickets. Doubtless, if properly importuned, the company officials here may consent to issue such half fare tickets, and thus afford all an opportunity of being present at the State Capital, upon an occasion which will, in all probability, prove one of the greatest movements ever made in the cause of temperance in this country.

Disorderly Boys.—John Crouse, a tailor, living on Pennsylvania avenue, in the Eighth Ward, made information before Mayor McCarthy on Saturday evening, charging three young boys named William Harper, Fred Harper and John Maynard, living in his neighborhood, with disorderly conduct. The boys were arrested and a hearing given them on Saturday evening. The hearing failed to develop any proof of disorderly conduct on the part of the boys, and they were discharged, the prosecutor being required to pay the costs.

Afflicted with a Boyle.—On Saturday, Hugh Mulharron appeared before Alderman Strain and made information against Isabella Boyle, alleging that she had threatened him with various injuries and finally with death, besides using a large amount of violent and abusive language towards him. A warrant for her arrest was issued. The parties reside in the Sixth ward.

Attempted Burglary on Smithfield Street.—On Friday night some person made an attempt to enter a store on Smithfield street, between Sixth street and Strawberry alley, near the German Church. The front door was bored through, but a further progress was prevented by an iron bar on the inside of the door.

Precocious.—A boy named Patrick Lalley, about twelve years old, was yesterday brought to the lock-up in a state of the most beastly intoxication. It is not often that so thorough a commencement in the ways of wickedness is made by one so young.

Court of Common Pleas.

Before Judges Sterrett, Mellon and Stowe.

This Court was in session on Saturday for the transaction of miscellaneous business.

ONE OF THE MANY.

Mr. Ewing presented the petition of stockholders in the "Merchants' Oil Company of Pittsburgh," praying for permission to surrender their charter, in accordance with act of Assembly. The required publication was ordered; and if there be no objections made, a decree in accordance with the prayer of petitioners will be made on the 4th Monday of March.

A NEW BUILDING SOCIETY.

The constitution and articles of association of the "Reserve Township Building Society" were presented, and the Court considering them lawful, ordered that notice of the application for a charter of incorporation be published for three weeks.

Article first confers full corporate powers not repugnant to the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth, and contains a proviso that the clear yearly income of the real and personal estate held by the corporation shall not at any time exceed the sum of two thousand dollars.

Article second states the object of the Society to be to enable the members, by the weekly payment of twenty-five cents, and such additional amount per share as may be provided for in the by-laws, to either purchase or build a homestead.

Article third authorizes the issue of twelve hundred shares, to be sold to members at the rate of twenty-five cents per share, no member to purchase less than two nor more than twenty shares, and provides that the money raised by payment of weekly dues, sale of shares, and fines imposed, shall be loaned out to members, upon sufficent security, only for the purpose mentioned (building or purchasing a homestead), and at an equal rate per centum.

Article fourth provides that every member shall be entitled to a loan from the Society of one hundred and thirty dollars for each share he may hold. When two or more members shall make application for a loan at the same time, and there is a less amount in the treasury than would satisfy them, then the Society shall determine by lot, in a manner to be agreed upon, who shall receive money first, and so on until the whole is exhausted.

Article fifth provides that money shall be loaned only to members, and the security to be determined sufficient by the Board of Directors.

Article sixth provides that the officers shall consist of a President, Vice-President and nine Directors, whose duties will be defined in the by-laws.

BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION.

Robert Pollock, Esq., presented the petition of a number of parties, asking that the powers and immunities of corporations or bodies politic in law be conferred upon the "Miners' International Benevolent Association," the constitution of which was submitted for approval. The objects are stated to be the advancement of members in all useful information, the support of sick and destitute members by material aid in due charity, and sympathy with those whom misfortune and disease may overtake. All laboring men are made eligible to membership and entitled to benefits provided for. Two trustees are to be elected who will hold all real estate or leasehold property and convey the same. Power is given to organize subordinate associations, and money is to be raised by initiation fees and monthly dues. Notice of the petition for a charter was ordered to be published.

JOURNEYMAN PAINTERS' ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Pollock also presented a charter for the "Journeyman Painters' Association." The organization is similar to that of the one referred to above. It is designed to confine the membership to the craft, and one wholesome provision is that no one can become a member unless he has served a regular apprenticeship and is twenty-one years of age. Notice of the application for a charter was ordered to be given, as in the other cases.

Escape of Penitentiary Convicts.

The first escape which has been effected from the Western Penitentiary in some time was accomplished at six o'clock on Saturday morning by two convicts named Thomas Quirk and Charles Waters, alias Kingsley. The two men went out of the building through a ventilator, and on reaching the wall, climbed to the top by means of a pipe on the inside. They had made a rope of their bedding and clothing, and this they fastened to the top of the wall and swung themselves down the outside.

Waters is an Allegheny county man, and was imprisoned for larceny some time ago. He is about twenty-one years of age, is five feet six inches high, and of slender make. He has fair complexion, black hair, and dark eyes. A portion of the forefinger of the left hand is gone.

Quirk was sent from Erie county, also for larceny. He is slender, five feet six and a half inches high, fair complexion, dark brown hair and grey eyes. He is about twenty-two years of age and has been a sailor. He has a coat of arms tattooed with blue ink, on his breast, and both arms are marked with red and blue ink.

Both men wore the striped prison suit. H. Campbell, Warden of the Western Penitentiary, offers a reward of $50 each for the capture and return of the fugitives.

An Ungrateful Guest.

It is not very often that a man is found mean enough to drink the ale freely given him, and then sue the man who gave it away. Such an one, according to George Robe, has been found in the person of Ephraim Ballet. The two are neighbors, residing in the Fifth ward. On Sunday, of last week, Robe, who, is the proprietor of a drinking saloon, invited Ballet to dine with him. He accepted the invitation, but on going to the table discovered that instead of tea or coffee a large vessel of ale was on the board. Of this all partook, Ballet seeming to enjoy the beverage as much as any person present. On Saturday, however, he appeared before Alderman James Taylor, and made oath against Robe for violation of the Sunday liquor law, which makes it an indictable offense to even give away liquor on Sunday. The unfortunately hospitable man will probably have to pay for the ale he gave away, and will undoubtedly discover, as others have done, that it is expensive to have anything to do with the Ballet.

Game Law Infringed.

On Saturday morning a young man named John Clark was arrested in the market by market constable John Messner, for exposing partridges and prairie chickens for sale contrary to law. The arrest was made at the instance of two well known amateur sportsmen, and who regard any infringement of the game laws as a personal matter. Clark claims that the birds were not shot in this State, but were shipped here. He also pretends ignorance of the law in such cases, which expressly states that if any person has game in their possession out of season, the same shall be regarded as evidence of the violation of the law relating to killing, and the offender shall pay a fine of five dollars for every bird in his possession. As Clark had twenty-six partridges and three prairie chickens, a little sum of $145 will be required to get him out of his scrape.

District Court.

This Court was in session on Saturday, Judges Hampton and Williams on the bench, and entertained a number of motions, &c., none, however of general importance.

We Call the Attention

Of farmers, and all who desire to settle in the West, to the advertisement of over 100,000 acres of the finest lands in Kansas. These lands are all within 15 hours by rail of St. Louis, and comprise several thousand acres of the best timbered lands along the valley of the Kansas river. The Delaware Reserve was ceded to the Union Pacific railway company, Eastern division, by treaty conditioned on the building of the railroad through them. The terms of the treaty have been complied with, and they are now for the first time offered at public sale. This is a rare opportunity for men of small means to secure homes in one of the most enterprising and growing of our trans-Mississippi States.

Citizens of Lawrenceville.—The citizens of Lawrenceville are requested to meet at Robinson's Hall, on this (Monday) evening, at 7½ o'clock, for the purpose of taking action to prevent the passage of a bill by the Senate (already passed the House) compelling the borough of Lawrenceville, in certain cases, to build retaining walls upon the grading of certain streets, and to prevent lot owners from grading their lots within one hundred feet of St. Mary's Cemetery.

Hearing Had.—On Saturday, Joseph Hamilton and Milton Cole, charged by Milton McCabe with wilfully and maliciously disturbing a singing school on Neville Island, had a hearing before Alderman Donaldson which resulted in their acquittal. Much interest was excited.

Attempted Outrage on Fountain Street.

At about two o'clock yesterday morning, a German woman residing on Fountain street, in the Tenth ward, was awakened by hearing some person in her room. She is something of an invalid, and keeps a small night lamp burning by her bed. By the light of this lamp she discovered a man in his shirt sleeves coming towards the bed. He sprang upon the bed and attempted to prevent her making any outcry. She caught him firmly by the wrists, however, and called loudly for the watch. Another family occupies the house, and through the partition between the two portions, a hole has been cut, so that the members of the two families may converse together. Through the opening the man residing in the other portion of the house heard the alarm, and immediately came around to aid his neighbor. Before he reached the spot, however, the intruder had broken from the grasp of the woman, and had got out of the room as he had evidently got into it, by the window. Several watchmen reached the place very shortly, but the villain, whoever he was, had taken himself effectually away. The room entered is on the first floor, and is easily entered by means of the window. The woman is a widow, with four children. It is not clearly known what the burglar was after, whether he desired to rob the room of money supposed to be possessed by the woman, or whether his intention was to outrage the person of his unwilling hostess. He was not recognized, but the fact of his being in his shirt sleeves, seems proof that he was from the immediate neighborhood.

A Short Cut.

Dan'l M'Cullough resides on Coal Lane, in the Third ward, and on Saturday afternoon, wishing to reach Canal street in the shortest possible time, he came, very much intoxicated and with uncertain steps, to the brink of the high bank off Liberty street, and just back of the Elevator and Union depot. The bank is very high, and almost perpendicular, and its face is one mass of soft, slippery mud. Daniel took one weak-minded step, after he reached the edge, with the evident intention of walking down the muddy precipice to the muddy level below. He did not need to take another step to reach the given point. He had made the shortest possible cut to the bottom, although his mode of locomotion was some what novel and not of the most graceful style. He rolled, tumbled and slid from top to bottom of the bank, and at last when he struck bottom, he lighted head downwards on a dead hog which has lain there for some time, wasting its fragrance on the desert air of that vicinity. When Daniel commenced his descent, he wore a good suit of very good looking clothes; when he was picked up it would be difficult to tell what he wore. He was covered with a thick coating of mud from head to foot, as if a plaster of Paris man was to be run in the dried mould taken from him. He could not have been muddier if he had crossed Liberty street, by the Elevator half a dozen times. Officers Gordon and Cochran saw the fall of the man in that instance, and went to his relief. They picked him up tenderly, and very tenderly conveyed him to the lock-up, where he remained until he became a soberer, man—a sadder one he could not be. Yesterday morning in default of five dollars he went to jail.

Lectures.

The Value of a Greenback.—Everybody is more or less interested in the finances of our Government and the general wealth of the country, but the subject is less understood than any other current one of the day. Few know the worth of the Government, its ability to meet its obligations, the value of greenbacks and bonds, the advantages and disadvantages of a tariff, and everything else closely or remotely connected with the present or future welfare of the United States. Dr. Elder, the learned statistician of the United States Treasury Department, proposes to lecture on all these subjects, not in a dry statistical manner, but in entertaining and clear language, to-morrow night at the Academy of Music, and will doubtless be greeted by an overwhelming audience of ladies and gentlemen.

The Nation's Opportunity.—The distinguished colored lady, Mrs. F. E. Harper, who has created great enthusiasm wherever she has lectured in America, will hold forth upon "The Nation's Opportunity," at City Hall, to-morrow evening. She is the only peer of Anna Dickinson in this country as a speaker, and will doubtless draw an immense audience.

White Suffrage.—Porter E. Sawyer, Esq., a well known political gentleman, will lecture at Masonic Hall, to-morrow evening, on "White Suffrage to Maintain White Civilization." This is an interesting theme and will be ably handled by the talented lecturer.

Throwing Vitriol.

On Saturday afternoon a boy named Patsey Connolly, who resides with his mother in Splane's Court, was returning home with a loaf of bread, when he met, at the corner of Sixth and Smithfield streets, another boy named Jas. Sherry. Young Sherry is a shop boy in a drug store on Smithfield street; and lives with his mother on Strawberry alley. He had in his hand a pitcher in the bottom of which was a small quantity of sulphuric acid. As he met Patsey he tossed the acid out of the pitcher upon the other boy, saying it was water for him. The acid fell on Patsey's side and leg, burning him very considerably. The injured boy was taken up and attended to by officer Cupples, who afterwards arrested young Sherry and took him to the Mayor's office. Mrs. Connolly, however, refused to appear against the prisoner, and he was discharged.

Fell Down Stairs.

Yesterday, a man named Davis, while in a state of considerable intoxication, visited a house on the Extension, between High and Tunnel streets, and sought admission. The door in which he was endeavoring to enter was elevated from the ground, and was reached by ascending ten steps. He lost his balance while standing on the top step, and pitched head-foremost to the ground, striking on his head at the foot of the steps, and when assistance reached him, he was found with his head wedged in so tightly between the bottom step and a door in the basement, that the door had to be opened before he could be extricated. He was unhurt, except as to his hat, which was pretty badly used up. If it had not been, for said hat, however, he would probably have had his head somewhat mashed.

The Washington Murder.

In the early part of last December, as will be remembered, Robert Dinsmore, living near Washington, Pa., was murdered, and William or "Babe" Montgomery and his companion Fogler, were committed for murder, and separate indictments made out. During last week, in the Washington county Court, the case of Fogler was taken up and went to the jury on Saturday evening. To-day the case of Montgomery will be commenced. Fogler will be used as a witness in this case. A most determined effort is being made to secure young Montgomery's acquittal. Immediately after the conclusion of his trial, the trial of Lennox, for the murder of Morrow, will be commenced.

Government of the Fire Department.

It seems we are to have no more firemen's balls, or firemen's picnics. The Council Committee for Fire Engines & Hose, held a meeting on Saturday evening, and decided, as we are informed, on an ordinance to be laid before Councils, which act provides that each Fire Company in the city shall receive $3,000 per year, on condition that the members shall solicit no outside contributions, and that the companies shall give no balls or picnics. The provisions of the ordinance, if as reported to us, will meet with the general approval of the department.

Soldiers' Monument—Ninth Ward Contributions.—The Sub-committee appointed for the Ninth ward by the Soldiers' Monument Association, report $602.50 as the total of their receipts from contributions so far as made. The Association desire early reports from all sub-committees, as the time fixed for the Fair and Festival is near at hand. It is to be hoped that as favorable reports will come from all sub-districts as this from the Ninth ward, and that from Liberty township. This is a noble work in which our patriotic ladies are engaged, and it is hoped that our citizens will yield them ready and liberal assistance.

Smoky.—Considerable excitement was created on Saturday evening, in the neighborhood of Herron's cigar shop, on Wood street, by the alleged larceny, by one W. McDonald, of a box of cigars from the shop. McDonald was caught, as is stated, in the act, and officers Busha and Dressler arrested him and conveyed him to the Mayor's office. Mr. Herron appeared at the office, but, having recovered his cigars, refused to prosecute, and the alleged robber was discharged. McDonald is a young man from the country and is very respectable in appearance.

Discharged.—On Saturday, in Allegheny, John Deeny, the boy charged with stealing twenty-five dollars from his father, Wm. Deeny, and Alexander Gardiner, the other boy charged with knocking young Deeny down and robbing him of the stolen money, were before Mayor Morrison for a hearing. The father of young Deeny, ascertaining that he could not put young Gardiner through, without also prosecuting his son, refused to prosecute, and both the boys were discharged.

Murdock at City Hall.

Three readings and recitations will be given at City Hall during this week, by the unapproachable James E. Murdock, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association. The first entertainment will be given on Thursday evening, the 28th inst., the subject being "Shakspeare and the Bible." On Friday evening the audience will spend "An evening with Sir Walter Scott," and on Saturday evening Poetry and Prose will be given. For particulars see advertisement. The popularity of this renowned man will have the effect of filling the huge hall to repletion every evening of his stay.

Fatal Accident.

Mr. Samuel Alton and his son, Henry Alton, were drowned on Thursday evening, in the Monongahela river, at Stone's upper coal works, some eighteen miles above the city. Mr. Alton and his son, in company with three other men, were about crossing the river to the south side. The current was very rapid, and one of the parties in the skiff caught hold of the ice breaker at the coal works, which extends some distance into the river, to prevent the boat from drifting. This caused the skiff to capsize, and the occupants were thrown into the water. All escaped except Mr. Alton and his son, who were drowned. Search is still being made for their bodies.

A Cruel Parient.

On Saturday a young girl named Philomena Schaad made information before Alderman Strain, charging James Montague with seduction. The accused was arrested, and on being brought to the office he and his accuser made up their minds to marry themselves out of their mutual scrape. The ceremony was about to be consummated, when James' mother made her appearance and proclaimed that, if she understood herself—and she thought she did—her son should not marry that girl just yet. Said son is not twenty-one years of age, and therefore, the infant was obliged to give bail for his appearance at Court.

The Bank Embezzlement.—We mentioned, on Saturday morning, the fact that Augustus H. V. Edler, chief book keeper of the Dollar Savings Bank, had been detected in embezzling and falsifying the books of the bank. It appears that the defalcations have continued for a considerable length of time, and the amount taken reaches, as we are informed, over $25,000. Mr. Edler's residence on Marion street, in the Eighth ward, together with his furniture are attached, and thus about $10,000 of the lost money will be made good. The accused is still lying very ill.

Lindley Murray Gone Crazy.—The Leader is a progressive sheet, and is continually broaching new reforms. The Leader's latest enterprise, and one by the way, in which it is quite persistent, is the establishment of new usages in Grammar. Yesterday morning our neighbor, in staring capitals at the head of one of its columns, snapped its fingers in the face of Bullions, and set Lindley Murray crazy in this style: "The Tombs—What we Seen and Heard There."

Drunk and Disorderly.—At a late hour on Friday night, officers Ecke and Philson arrested a man named George Mininger, in the upper part of the Third ward, Allegheny, where he was considerably drunk and very disorderly. He was locked up and on Saturday morning was fined $5.

Do Away With Pernicious Drugs, and order half a dozen of those Perfect Fitting French Yoke Shirts at Murdock & Putnam's, 72 Fifth street.

GRUBBS—WOOD.—On Thursday evening, February 21st, 1867, by Rev. Henry D. Moore, Mr. J. M. GRUBBS to Miss SALLIE WOOD, all of Allegheny.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1867.

WE are indebted to Hon. JOHN CONNESS, United States Senator from California, for important Public Documents.

WE LAY before our readers to-day, the interesting proceedings of the recent meeting of the Stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad, held at Philadelphia, last week. Owing to an unusual and extraordinary pressure upon our advertising columns, we were forced to let this report go over, and, although late, we now publish it knowing how deeply it interests the business public. The high tribute paid by some of the speakers to the intelligence, tact, and managerial capacities of the gentlemen in charge of the affairs of this Company, is a deserved and well-earned compliment, which is heartily endorsed by all interested in the great corporation.

BRIDGES ACROSS THE MISSISSIPPI.

We hope Congress will not authorise the erection of any bridge across the Mississippi that will impair its free navigation by steamers of the largest class. This great stream is the noblest channel and avenue of inland commerce in the world; it drains a valley larger than many of the kingdoms of the world. There floats upon its waters already, a tonnage greater than that of our entire foreign commerce; its basin is destined to be the home of hundreds of millions of wealth-creating people; Nature has not elsewhere provided a country on which so many inhabitants can live and prosper as the vast valley watered by the Mississippi and tributaries; none of equal extent comprises so many advantages or such elements of progress and wealth; its latitude in the temperate zone; its climate, unsurpassed for salubrity; its soil, unequalled in the world; its wealth of minerals, gold, silver, iron, copper, coal, salt, &c., without a parallel on the globe; its navigable rivers, traversing every portion of this vast area and even now fretted by the wheels of a thousand busy steamboats.

We concede the importance, the necessity, for railroads. They must cross the channels of our rivers. The despotism of civilization and progress demands that railroads shall run athwart our rivers, and gather and distribute the tides of immigration all along the plains and over the mountains that stretch from seaboard to seaboard of the two great oceans. The Locomotive is destined to rank among the mightiest of the enginery for the spread of civilization, Christianity, and commerce; but our statesmen and legislators should see to it that these inventions of men; these works of art; these creatures of law, shall be regulated by law, and their mission accomplished without destroying or impairing the provisions made in the economy of nature in her many and mighty rivers. No art of man can devise means of transportation so cheap as that afforded by the seas, lakes and rivers that are so remarkable a feature in American geography. Let there be, first and paramount, the Railroads. Secondary, If the car must cross the river, compel it in its leap to clear the top of the largest passing boat. Deprive not the waters of their needful scope and verge. The right of the boat is preemptive, primeval. The car is a new comer; give it place, but disturb not the old settler, "the good old Mississippi."

Elsewhere will be found the report of the Pittsburgh delegates to the St. Louis Convention for the improvement of navigation upon the Mississippi river, upon which we have based the foregoing remarks.

THE CHRONIC INSANE.

The proper care and treatment of the large number of chronic insane (or as it is usually styled incurables) has been very much discussed during the last few years, not only in this country, but in England and France.

Plans, which may answer very well for the peculiar state of society in France and Great Britain, would not do in this country from the very great difference in the habits and customs of society.

Every one, who has investigated the subject, knows that in England a great amount of work of various kinds, mechanical and agricultural, is done by the patients, while in this country no such system of work can be organized and maintained to the same degree of efficiency; and where the attempt has been made in this country, it has been found, after extended trial in the hands of careful thorough, men, to cost more than where the same work was done by men specially hired for the purpose.

To give the reasons for this would lead us away from the object now in view, but the fact is indisputable, and confirmed by the experience of all who have given most attention to the subject. The insane cannot, from the the character of their physical disorder, labor more than a few hours a day, and to secure even that amount, much care and constant supervision are required, and that supervision becomes expensive in proportion to the number of the insane who may may be employed; if, in mechanical labor, there must be skilled supervision; if in agriculture or gardening, careful and attentive men to see that the work is properly done and the tools not broken and destroyed.

It has been claimed that much of the expense of maintenance may be saved by requiring those of the chronic insane who are physically able, to labor several hours each day on the farm, or in other occupations about the establishments. The experiment of a large institution for the chronic insane has never been fully tried in this country, though efforts are now in progress in New York and Massachusetts to give the plan a trial. In every institution for the insane in this country, a certain number will be found who will work on the farm, and that number will vary in different localities but it is indisputably established by the experience of the majority of superintendents of hospitals for the insane, that that class of workmen cannot be relied on for steady work, and that when most needed they are hardest to be had. This statement applies to continuous labor day after day, and not to spasmodic efforts.

This whole subject has been very fully discussed at the two last meetings of the Association of Medical Superintendents of American Institutions for the Insane, and the result of the discussion may be stated in the adoption at their last meeting in May, 1866, in Washington, D. C., of this proposition: "That insane persons considered curable, and those supposed incurable, should not be provided for in separate establishments." Among the reasons besides that given above, which led to this, may be mentioned the following: The extreme reluctance on the part of those who have given most time and study to the subject to decide, except in the clearest cases of organic disease of the brain and nervous system, whether such persons may not recover. No man, whose experience has extended to fifteen or twenty years, has failed to see many cases which had been pronounced incurable, recover, and the books and reports of other institutions, which he is daily reading, make mention of many more. The usual statement is that the probability of restoration diminishes with each year of the continuance of the disorder, but like all other statements of the kind, it requires to be modified and corrected.

Hope is the great element in the restoration of the insane, and everything which tends to quench that hope acts injuriously on the person affected. Tell a man who has been insane for some time that he is incurable, and the only thing which makes his life endurable is removed, and he becomes abjectly miserable. Can any thing more certainly have this effect than the establishment of an institution for "incurables?" The very name and its associations, such are the tendencies of the human mind, have a depressing influence, and no man would wish to add to the miseries of a fellow-being thus afflicted.

Some may say that this is putting too fine a point to the argument, but let any one spend years in ministering to the care and restoration of the insane, and notice the small matters which turn the scale for weal or woe to a man's mind, and then say that anything is too great to be done, or too small to be avoided, to relieve the most terrible of all the maladies by which man is afflicted.

There is no economy in such an institution over the present method, notwithstanding the belief of those who favor such institutions that it would be a more economical method of caring for the insane.

Such an Institution must have its staff of officers and others employed in the same manner that any other Hospital has, and if the amount of work to be done by the patients is expected to be of any service, there must be a large number of attendants to direct that work and give that care and attention to the patients which is absolutely necessary to accomplish the best results.

The removal of the chronic insane would tend to increase the expense of maintenance in Hospitals, as it would necessitate the employment of additional attendants, because the most expensive patients are always the recent cases, who do nearly all the damage and require to be so much more carefully watched and guarded, and because much of the light work in the wards, and much assistance in the care and management of the recent cases, are obtained from chronic cases; and the very beneficial influence exerted in calming an irritable patient, and assisting in making them contented, relieves to a very great degree the labors of the officers and attendants.

There are many chronic insane who are invaluable in every Hospital for the insane for the great good they exert over others, and the good they thus do redounds to their own benefit.

No class of men are more zealous or more steady friends of the insane than the medical men who are in charge of our hospitals for that class, and, as a class, they are in favor of the maintenance of the present system of having recent and chronic cases in the same wards, and opposed to the plan of having Institutions built specially designed for the chronic, or those styled incurable. They believe that there is not only no economy in such a course, but that positive injury to the best interests of society and of the insane will result from such a proceedure.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

Annual Meeting of the Stockholders—Report of the President—The Future Financial Policy—Action of the Stockholders Thereon—The Whole Subject Referred to a Committee for Investigation.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was held at Philadelphia, in the Board of Trade rooms, on Tuesday last. The chair was filled by Hon. MORTON MCMICHAEL, Mayor of Philadelphia, in virtue of his office, that city being the largest stockholder in the corporation.

The annual report of the President of the road, J. EDGAR THOMPSON, Esq., was submitted to the meeting. It is a lengthy document, giving valuable statistics as to the working of the road. For the purpose of consolidating the indebtedness of the road, to raise funds to meet the legitimate expansion of business, and to preserve the proper relations between the share capital and debts of the Company, the following financial programme accompanies the report of the President, for the approval of the stockholders:

First. That the Bonds of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company secured by the First and Second Mortgages, and those due the Commonwealth issued for the purchase of the Main Line of Public Works, and other indebtedness, to be paid out of the proceeds of, or be retired by, Bonds to be secured by a Consolidated Mortgage upon the whole or such portion of the line from Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, with its equipment, and for such amount as the President and Board of Directors may determine, and the issue of the Bonds secured thereby shall at no time exceed the capital stock as the same may from time be increased.

Second. Dividends to be made semi-annually of not exceeding Four per cent. from the net profits of the Company, payable in cash, free of United States and State taxes, and that a stock dividend of Five per cent., based upon profits already earned, be declared at the regular dividend term in May next, and thereafter, in addition to the semi-annual cash dividend, a stock dividend of Five per cent. per annum be declared annually, if the net earnings of the company will warrant the same.

When the report had been read to the stockholders, Col. PAGE objected to the motion that it be accepted and referred to the incoming Board. He protested against the proposed increase of the capital stock of the company, and in regard to the act of the Legislature, which authorizes the increase of the capital stock by 200,000 shares, which gave a sum equal to $10,000,000. He said without the consent of the stockholders, no Legislature can pass, legitimately, such action as this. Col. PAGE further held that the road discriminates against Philadelphia; (what about Pittsburgh?); that the free pass system is also abused to a serious extent; it is a growing and demoralizing evil. The stockholders were robbed for the sake of conciliating, men in power. Those who get passes oftentimes sell them in the streets. There can be no harm in making an investigation. No one could say that the report just read was correct. The stockholders owe it to themselves to know whether it was so or not. Col. PAGE then offered a resolution referring the report to a special committee of seven stockholders for examination; that said committee be directed to examine into and report upon the expediency of using additional stock and borrowing more money; to examine into and report upon the operation and working of the system of free passes, and of private freight expresses, and to what extent the officers and employes are interested in the last, and the effect these have had and still have upon the earnings of the road, and the rights and interests of the stockholders.

Mr. THEODORE CUYLER, on behalf of the management of the road, made a lengthy defense against the strictures of Colonel PAGE. The following, from Mr. CUYLER's speech, will be of interest to the general reader. He said:

"The Pennsylvania Railroad Company was incorporated just twenty years ago, with a capital of $13,000,000 to build a road 248 miles long. It has swollen, in the lines it owns and controls, from 248 miles to more than 1,100. Though its stock was begged from door to door, to a large extent in individual subscriptions of humble men—who gave them in no expectation of profit, for they anticipated none, but solely for the public good—yet this much abused corporation has divided to its stockholders, over and above six per cent. interest per annum, forty-six per cent. of extra profit. In addition to this, out of its earnings, it has paid more than $6,000,000 in reduction of the original cost of its line of works; more than $900,000 upon the purchase of its main line; and has reduced the cost of equipment upon its books from upwards of $10,000,000 to a little more than $3,000,000, making in the whole more than $14,000,000 paid out of its income towards its permanent work and equipments, beside dividing forty-six per cent. above six per cent. to its stockholders. (Applause.) In addition to all this, it carries from its income a contingent fund of $1,000,000, and a sinking fund of $2,000,000 more."

Mr. CUYLER paid this pleasing compliment to President THOMPSON:

"However tersely and vigorously he writes, nature seems to have denied him the power, as it has done to many other men great, of expressing himself in mixed assemblies. And yet, sir, he is not without speech. He has written his great thoughts in vast lines of internal improvement, through which they are made visible to our eyes, across the face of our continent (applause), bridging rivers, filling valleys and subduing mountains, to make a highway for the commerce of the world. (Renewed applause.) These will endure as the proofs of his intellectual power, when you and I are forgotten dust."

Mr. CUYLER, at the close of his remarks, somewhat to the surprise of the auditory, said that, at the request of the President and Directors, he seconded the amendment of Colonel PAGE, remarking that he felt sure that the utmost investigation into the policy of the company would only redound to the credit of its officers. Colonel PAGE's resolution was then adopted; and the Committee provided for, directed to report to a meeting of the stockholders to be held on the first Monday of April. The Chairman of the meeting was directed to appoint the Committee.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated Coe's Cough Balsam. Mr. Coe has never prepared a medical article for public and general use but what has stood the strongest tests, and has always borne the palm of victory over every disease it has been certified to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, sick headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle? We will never urge you again if we fail in this case. Our own knowledge of its merits the united testimony of all who have ever tried it, the encomiums of hundreds of our own neighbors, your duty to yourself, and the beneficial result, as certain as sunshine, all urgently, persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—if you do not say that the operation of the medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful—we will renounce our profession as caterers to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be entitled to your confidence.

READ THE CERTIFICATE OF Rev. R. T. FLUALIN.

To DR. HOSTETTER:

Dear Sir:—This is to certify that I was taken with the dyspepsia a year ago last March, and, for a period of eight months, was one of the most miserable creatures you ever beheld, not being able either to eat, drink, or sleep, and was compelled to walk the floor incessantly. I was nearly deprived of my reason, and hope had entirely left me, all the efforts made for my recovery having proved fruitless.

By the first of November, 1865, I had become so weak and feeble that I could scarcely stand alone, and, to all appearance, would soon die. At this time (having read your advertisement,) my wife prevailed upon me to try your Bitters. A bottle was procured, and, strange to say, I soon commenced recovering. I have taken four bottles, and am enjoying as good health now as could be expected for one of my age (about sixty years.) I have no doubt that it was your Bitters alone, under Divine Providence, that effected this wonderful cure.

THE HEALTHINESS OF THE WHITE PINE.

One of the most valuable compounds that has ever been brought before the American public is that of the white pine, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. It is compounded from the inside bark of the pine tree, which grows abundantly throughout all the New England States, and has long been known and valued for its anti-scorbutic properties, not only by the inhabitants of that region of country now resident, but likewise to the wild Indians who formerly roamed the wilderness of the New England pine region, and from whom its great medical virtues seem to have been learned. POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND is, then, nothing more or less, as its name imports, than a complete, pleasant and effectual remedy made from the sweet inside bark of that valuable forest tree, combined with a few other well known diuretics. Its effects upon the kidneys and other secerning organs is truly surprising, but perfectly logical and scientific at the same time. It will be found exceedingly valuable in all dormant and diseased states of the mucous tissues, and we would especially recommend it where Buchu and such like remedies have failed, as being more active and efficacious for diabetes, bleeding from the kidneys, blind piles, enuresis, gravel, and nearly every disease of the mucous lining of the bladder and kidneys.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

The Common Grounds.

EDITORS PITTSBURGH GAZETTE—I was very sorry to read the communication of "More Anon," in your paper several days ago, discouraging the effort now inaugurated to make public parks of the Common Grounds of Allegheny.

I had hoped that no citizens with any degree of public spirit could oppose the improvement. I can add but little to the argument of the Committee itself, but ask your indulgence to correct some errors which "More Anon" labors under.

In the first place, then, the funds are not to be raised by general taxation. I should bitterly oppose any such proposition. It is raised by assessment; that is to say, each piece of property pays its due proportion of the purchase money of the improvement, and when the purchase money is paid, the assessments cease, as a matter of course.

In the second place, in-lotholders are not to have their rights of common taken from them, and then be taxed as much as others in addition. On the contrary, they will receive the full value of their right of commonage, as determined by sworn viewers, appointed by the Court. Having received that, it is evident they then will stand on terms of equality with all others, and the assessments will be laid on them, of course, just the same as on others, who are equally benefited.

As to the claim that out-lotholders are also entitled to commonage, it comes at rather a late day. The Supreme Court of Pennsylvania have, long ago, (Carr vs. Wallace, 7 Watts, 388; at Pittsburgh, in September, 1838,) and repeatedly since the first decision, settled the law in question. The Patents referred to always embraced a town lot and an out lot, and the privileges. What these privileges are, are defined by the act of 11th of September, 1783, sections 2 and 4, which are in these words, viz:

2. * * * That the President * * is hereby empowered to cause to be laid out and surveyed a town in lots, with a competent and suitable number of out-lots for the accommodation thereof in said tract * *

4. That the President * * shall reserve out of the lots of the said town for the use of the State so much land as they shall deem necessary for a Court House, Gaol and Market House, for places of public worship, and for burying the dead, and without the said town one hundred acres for a common pasture * *

The Supreme Court in the case referred to, fully considered the whole question as to the right of out-lot holders to commonage, and decided that the out-lots themselves were but incident to the town lots, that the right of common was appurtenant to the in-lots, and that the owners of out-lots were not entitled to right of common.

S.

The Allegheny Commons.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE:—Just when the enlightened people of Allegheny, are beginning to feel that at length the necessary steps are being taken to wipe out an old eye sore, and render the unsightly Commons no longer a disgrace to a thriving city, some anonymous person indulges himself in a vain peroration on the subject. Let us look at his objections and arguments, and try to see if we can not rub off a little of the smoke which has evidently been gathering for years on his venerable glasses.

First, your correspondent indulges in little disinterested sympathy with lot owners, for having to pay for the loss of the use of an unsightly, unproductive common pasture, and the only equivalent offered is, a verdant park, a sylvan retreat in the heart of a parched city, a place where their wives and children can breathe the fresh, untainted air at no expense but that of a slight tax, which is to be so subdivided as to be merely nominal.

At first "More Anon" does not seem to see any objection but the prodigal outlay of greenbacks, and magnanimously cries, cui bono, when several enlightened gentlemen, despairing of any municipal action, have already begun the good work at their own expense; and would, if left alone by our prodigal Councils, after a lapse of time, give us a park free of common expense. But then he, with wonderful foresight, perceives that even City Fathers may have a sense of shame, and an appreciation of the fitness of things, so he looks about for other objections, and he perceives that this ruinous extravagance, this outrageous outlay, is only to pander to the tastes of the idle and the fashionable, with which he has no doubt, observed, our city is so overburdened.

Let us pray heaven, dear GAZETTE, that you have no more anonymous correspondents of this sort. It seems almost impossible that such short sighted ignorance can exist in the present age and community. We are all born to labor, and we labor for money, but I think there are very few of us who do not believe that money is only good for the pleasures and necessaries that it can procure. Surely such views as your correspondent proclaims are only entertained by misers of the worst sort. The sister cities have, proportionately, a more horrid list of crimes than any others in the country, and I think that the want of innocent amusement is the cause of this unpleasant precedency. Our "Jack" has all work, and no play, excepting such as the liquor shops afford, and the consequences are daily seen in your criminal reports. "More Anon," devoid of appreciation of the beautiful himself, ascribes its possession to two classes, "The idle and fashionable," and "rowdies and vagabonds," who will, he says, be attracted to these grounds. I doubt the truth of his classification, but cannot see that it will do any one any harm to be able to see verdant, springy turf and redundant foliage around him, and hope and believe that M. A., if he could spend a little time among such objects, might find his views and his heart enlarging; and I also hope and believe that such short-sighted old fogyism, as he preaches, will have no effect on the onward course of the committee which has the good work in hand. "W."

The Disinterment of Pennsylvania Soldiers—Opinion of the Attorney General.

Attorney General Brewster, of this State, has recently given an important opinion, a synopsis of which will be of interest. Col. Gregg, the Chief of Transportation, has had presented to him, under the act of 1866, numerous claims for transportation by two class of claimants—one who ask payment for expenses incurred in removing the remains of deceased soldiers who had been residents of this State, but who had enlisted in the regiments of other States, and for whose service as soldiers this State received no credit upon her quota; the other asking payment for the expense of removing the remains of those who had enlisted in the regular army and navy, but who were counted in the quotas called for from this State, and whose service as soldiers was credited to this State. The question asked by Colonel Gregg was, "whether, under the act of 1866, such claims can be paid, and transportation issued?"

The Attorney General answered that in his opinion the soldiers first alluded to could in no sense be said to be soldiers of Pennsylvania, merely because they happened to be residents or citizens therein at the time of such enlistments. In nearly, if not quite, all such cases the parties were influenced in their enlistment by the offer of large bounties made in the neighboring States, and by enlisting there deprived this State of her right to their military services, so that neither the State nor the citizens thereof can be said to have received any benefit from their enlistment beyond what was received from the citizens of other States enlisting in their own regiments; but on the contrary, by reason thereof, had additional burdens cast upon them. Such persons cannot, therefore, in the opinion of Mr. Brewster, be called soldiers of Pennsylvania, and are not entitled to the benefits of the law.

As to the second class, as the State had not only the benefit of their enlistments in the general service, but also of being credited upon her quota with such enlistments, and her citizens being thereby, to that extent, relieved from the military service required of them, the Attorney General is of opinion that such soldiers may fairly be said to be serving for this State in the armies of the United States, and to come within the intention of the act of 1866.

Regulations for Lent.

Bishop Domenic, of the diocese of Pittsburgh, has issued the following circular detailing the regulations for lent:

1. All the faithful who have completed their 21st year are, unless legitimately dispensed, bound to observed the fast of Lent.

2. They are to make only one full meal a day, excepting Sundays.

3. The meal allowed on Fast-Days is not to be taken till about noon.

4. At that meal, if on any day permission should be granted for eating flesh, both flesh and fish are not to be used at the same time, even by way of sauce or condiment.

5. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening, no general rule as to the quantity of food, permitted at this time, is or can be made. But the practice of the most regular Christians is never to let it exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal.

6. General usage has made it lawful to drink in the morning some warm liquid: as tea, coffee, or thin chocolate made with water.

7. Necessity and custom have authorized the use of hog's lard, instead of butter, in preparing fish, vegetables, &c.

8. The following persons are exempted from the obligations of fasting: young persons under twenty-one years of age, pregnant women or those giving suck to infants, persons obliged to hard labor, and all who through weakness cannot fast without great prejudice to their health.

9. By dispensation the use of fresh meat will be allowed at any time on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of the Saturday in Ember Week, and the last four days of Lent.

10. Persons dispensed from the obligation of fasting are not bound by the restriction of using meat only at one meal, on days on which its use is granted by dispensation. Those who are obliged to fast, are permitted to use meat only at one meal.

The time for performing the Easter duty, in this Diocese, extends from Passion Sunday to the second Sunday after Easter exclusively, wherever Divine Service is held every Sunday. Elsewhere, the time may be extended, according to the discretion of the Pastor, from the first Sunday in Lent to Trinity Sunday.

NEIGHBORHOOD GLEANINGS.

Erie is to have a street railway. The main line it is expected to have finished by September.

Business in the Lehigh Valley is being pushed with great vigor. All the immense Rolling Mills in the vicinity of Allentown, the Gordon manufacturing Company, and all the furnaces are once more in successful operation, with orders from a distance for more work than they can supply as soon as it is wanted.

The Legislature has instructed the Committee on Public Buildings to enquire into the propriety of enlarging the Governor's residence at Harrisburg, and to present an estimate of the cost and plan, if found desirable. The Executive Mansion, in its present shape, is entirely unsuitable, for the purposes to which it has been appropriated.

At Holidaysburg last week, the Republicans carried the borough elections.

Eight propellers have been chartered to ply between Erie and the upper lakes. They will commence as soon as navigation opens.

St. Louis is to have a bridge across the Mississippi, as soon as one can be built. So much seems reasonably certain, for there are now at least two different organizations, with all the legal rights necessary for the completion of the work.

The Williamsport (Pa.) Bulletin tells the following singular story: "One of the curiosities of the season is that of numerous grasshoppers appearing on the grass where the snow has melted off. Whether this phenomenon is general, or only confined to particular localities, we are not able to state. Mr. H. S. Morse, who resides on Center street, caged several and brought them to our office. They were as lively as in midsummer. The grass in his yards is filled with these summer visitants. Who has seen winter grasshoppers elsewhere?"

Improvement of the Kanawha.

A number of prominent capitalists of New York, are seeking a charter from the West Virginia Legislature for the improvement of the Great Kanawha river. William H. Aspinwall and other wealthy and influential citizens of New York, are the signers of the petition, and they give it as their opinion that one million six hundred thousand dollars can readily be raised in the city of New York alone, if that amount should be required to make the Kunawha river navigable at all seasons of the year for shipping coal.

They cite the fact in their petition, that whilst Kanawha sends out about two millions of bushels annually to Cincinnati, Monongahela sends annually thirty-two millions to Cincinnati and the lower markets. These petitioners have, since 1850, expended upwards of two millions of dollars in endeavoring to develop their coal lands on the Great Kanawha and its tributaries, Elk, Coal and Pocotalico rivers, and all their efforts to mine and ship coal profitably from that region have so far proven a failure, which failure is attributed to the uncertain and imperfect navigation of the Great Kanawha. They now desire to remedy this by making the navigation of the Kanawha as good for shipping coal as the Monongahela.

The following are the New York stock quotations for to-day: Gold, 138¼@138¾; 1881 bonds, 110¼; Five Twenties, old, 111⅝; Five Twenties, '65, 108⅝; do new, 106½; Seven Thirties, 105¾. Market firm.

—It is said that Secretary McCulloch will shortly issue a circular notifying the public that the Department is now ready to receive and convert into five-twenty bonds the seven-thirty bonds issued under the act of August, 1864, and due next August, and also pay the interest thereon. This is done in order that the bonds may be received and converted daily, and not all be presented at the same time when due.

—The Western money markets show diminished stringency, and at Chicago the tone of monetary affairs indicates a gradual approach to a comfortable easiness, although balances show no marked signs of improvement. The Boston money market is active, the demand being in excess of the available supply at the banks. Call loans are rated at seven per cent on solid collaterals, and at six on Governments, but inferior securities are not acceptible to lenders. Prime commercial paper submits to eight per cent discount, and inferior grades are out of favor.

—The admission fee to the Philadelphia Stock Exchange is $2000. At Boston, to the Stock Board of that city, is also $2000. At New York it costs $3000 to become a member of the Stock Exchange there, and $2000 for membership of the Open Board. To become a member of the New York Gold Board the fee is $2500.

—The national treasury is in reality paying greater interest on its bonds than any corporation in the United States, when in fact it should be paying a great deal less because of the greater value of the security it gives. There were before Congress numerous schemes of a financial character, all of which were from time to time laid upon the shelf; but that which would have benefitted the treasury most, namely: a bill to consolidate the different loans of the Government at five per cent interest, was scarcely talked of during the session now nearly closed. Such a measure, so thoroughly discussed time and again, and which came near passing last year, we trust to see reproduced at the next Congress. Such a rate of interest for so valuable a security would be even more than the circumstances of the case really demand, and is greater than that paid by any other civilized Government. Capitalists would probably withdraw their money in this event, but it would go into new channels, aiding the industry and building up the great interests of the nation, now languishing for the want of active capital, and the national securities would still be held by the great body of the people as permanent investment returning them a sure and steady income from year to year.—Phila. Press.

—The money markets of the eastern and western cities are in a condition which does not warrant the hopes of lower rates here, but the reverse. In Boston money is quoted more active, at higher rates than have been known for some years. At the western grain ports best commercial bills sell at 10 per cent per annum, and borrowers feel favored who are accommodated at this rate. The funding of the Seven-Thirties due in August promises to keep money active at good rates, and a steady contraction will be forced upon the banks as the compound notes mature and pass into long bonds, which cannot be used as "legal-reserve." The movement of the Government toward contraction, first, by funding short debts, payable in currency, into long bonds, and again by canceling legal tenders and compounds, which are the foundation of an excessive inflation of bank credits. Contraction is still more sharply secured by the forced loan in the form of taxes, which the Government will collect in some form in 1867 to the amount of $500,000,000, from the proceeds of the labor of the country. There is nothing expansive in any part of the Government financial machinery, as all traders on borrowed money already realize. The National banks in this city and elsewhere have been drawn upon freely by the Treasury, with what result the balance at the Sub-Treasury shows.

Speculation in stocks is not on the increase, and this indicates that buyers are a good deal crippled. Instead of money as margins, it has become fashionable to put up Government stocks as collateral. The plain inference is that speculators have exhausted their cash capital, and have fallen back upon their investments for margins.—N. Y. Tribune.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, February 23, 1867. }

The produce markets have been a little more active during the week which has just closed, though there is still plenty of room for improvement; but, while it is true the volume of business has been larger in the aggregate, it is also true the transactions, generally, were of a jobbing character, round lot operations being an exception rather than the general rule. So far, however, as values are concerned, there has been no remarkable changes, but there is no disguising the fact that the tendency is downward.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet and unchanged—$2,55 to $2,60 for No. 1 Spring, and $2,85 to $2,90 for prime Red Winter. Sale of 1 car Oats at 48—small sales at 52. Barley is unchanged; prime No. 1 Spring may be quoted at 95 to $1. Sale of 2 cars Shelled Corn at 67—small sales at 75 to 78. Rye is in demand; sale of 66 sacks at $1.26; and 300 bush at same price.

FLOUR—Is dull and neglected but unchanged—regular sales at $11,50 to $12 for good to choice Spring Wheat brands; $13,50 to $14 for Winter Wheat; and $16 to $17 for fancy St. Louis brands. Rye Flour selling at $7,50 and Buckwheat at $3,75 to $4.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is selling in a jobbing way at 10 to 10¾ for Shoulders, and 15 to 15¼ for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is quoted at 12 to 12½, for steam, and 12¾ to 13 for kettle rendered. Mess Pork—$21 to $21.50

SEEDS—Sales of Coverseed, to the trade, at $8, and in a retail way at $8,50 to $9. Timothy Seed is dull—small sales at $3,25 to 3,50. Flaxseed is in demand and, if anything, a shade higher, offers having been made to-day to buy at $2,70 to $2,75;

BUTTER—Is in rather better demand, but the supply is considerably in excess of the wants of the trade at present. We can report sales of 8 bbls good Roll at 28 to 30; and 16 pkgs choice at 33.

EGGS—A shade firmer but unchanged—fresh packed selling at 25, and supply fully up to demand.

ASHES—sales of 30 tons common Soda Ash at 5¼; 10 tons Refined do at 6, and 7 tons Pearls at 14.

POTATOES—Continue very dull with liberal arrivals, and a supply largely in excess of the demand. We quote nominally at $2,25 to $2,75 per bbl, as to quality.

FISH—Sales of Lake Herron reported at $5 per half bbl, and White Fish at $9 per half bbl.

HAY—Is dull with continued liberal arrivals. Prices, however, remain unchanged and we continue to quote common to strictly prime Timothy at $20 to $25—on track.

DRIED FRUIT—We can report regular sales at 9 to 10 for Apples—Peaches at 16 to 17 for quarters and 19 to 20 for halves.

GREEN APPLES—Demand fair and market steady, with regular sales in store, at $3 to $4 per bbl, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, February 23, 1867. }

CRUDE—The market has been dull and unsettled throughout the entire week, and the sales, in the aggregate, have been light, when we take into consideration the fact that navigation has been fairly resumed for over a week. Compared with the early part of the week, prices are a shade lower, but even at the decline, there seems to be but a very limited demand, and the policy or strategy of refiners seems to be to hold off, and thus force a still further depreciation. We have the following sales reported to-day: 500 bbls, (36 gravity) to arrive, at 8; [illegible] gravity not mentioned, at 7½; 800 bbls "Pithole" oil, at 7, and 50 barrels "Smith's Ferry" at 6¼. No operations in Kanawha crude—indeed there has not been a sale of this oil during the week, and it is asserted, that the production of oil in West Virginia does not amount to much, and is not likely to influence the market one way or the other.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil continues dull and depressed, and while the demand is light, both for present and future delivery, there is but little offering at present prices. We continue to quote at 21, on cars here; and 27 to 27¼, delivered in Philadelphia—sale of one thousand barrels for April, at 21, free on cars at works. For free oil, the demand is very light, and prices are lower; we quote at 40 to 41 for twenty-five and fifty barrel lots, and 41½ to 42, in a jobbing way.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, February 23.—Gold has been very firm to-day. The railway market was strong at the stock exchange, and higher right through the list. Hudson River was the feature, and rose to 140 after call. After the market it was a fraction lower, but rallied again before the one o'clock board. Government securities stay in good demand; new 5-20 coupons of 1865 are higher. Border State bonds quiet and firm. In steamship shares there was a large business; Pacific Mail went up from 128¼@131, and down again to 129½; Atlantic Mail weak, and sold as low as 89; miscellaneous and Coal shares were in better demand, with a general improvement in prices. The stock market was heavy and lower towards the close of the day; Pacific Mail rallied to 132½; but for Atlantic 89 was asked and only 85 bid.

At 4:30 p. m., prices were: Ohio Certificates, 25⅛@25¼; Central Railroad, 102½@102⅝; Erie, 56⅛@56⅜; Hudson, 138@138¼; Michigan Southern, 72¾@73; Illinois Central, 115⅞@116½; Pittsburgh, 80¼@80¾; Toledo, 118¾@118½; North Western, 35⅞@37½; do preferred, 65@65½; Fort Wayne & Chicago, 97@97¼; Western Union Telegraph, 41½@42; Pacific Mail, 132⅛@132¼.

Governments a fraction lower on gold bonds, except new Five Twenties, Ten Forties, Coupons, Registered Sixes 1881, 110⅜@110⅝; Five Twenty Coupons, '65, 108⅛@109; Ten Forties, 101⅛@101¼; Seven Thirties, 105⅜@106¼.

Gold closed firm at 38¼. There was rather more demand for money, and a slight departure from the extreme ease was observed. Earlier in the week the most general rate for demand loans and stock collaterals was 6 per cent., with exceptions at 5 per cent., 4@5 being the general rate on Governments. Discounts fairly active at 6½@7 per cent. for prime, chiefly the higher rate. Banks not offering quite as freely, probably owing to the presentation of the checks lately drawn against the purchases of new 65s from the Treasury, but temporarily held back by the Sub-Treasury.

On mining shares: Gregory active and sold freely up to 14@14,10, all offered being readily taken. Quartz Hill advanced to 375, but closed at 400. Desmoines firm and in request at 2,20@2,30; Symonds Fork sold at 175, closing with no sellers under 190; Hope Gold, 50c; Reynolds, 12c; Smith & Parmlee, 660. Mining Stock bid in Boston to-day: Canada, 60; Copper Falls, 60; Hancock, 10; Huron, 31; Isle Royal, 11; Minnesota, 12; Quincy, 32.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, February 23.—Cotton dull, heavy and ½c lower; sales of 560 bales Uplands at 33½c. Flour 5@10c better, chiefly upon low and medium grades. RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with but nine and a half feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and raw with indications of snow.

There has not been a single arrival since Friday, aside from the regular packets, and the Argosy, from Cincinnati, is among the first boats due—she may be found in port this morning.

Capt. G. W. Ebbert, of the Yorktown was in the city on Saturday looking after his boat, and making arrangements for his long voyage to the headwaters of the Missouri river. The Amelia Poe, also goes to the mountains.

The Lorena left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday, and the Maggie Hays and Julia No. 2 were advertised to follow on Saturday.

It is reported the owner of the steamer White Cloud is about commencing suit against the City of St. Louis for its failure to remove the Belle Memphis obstruction, which caused the loss of the White Cloud.

The flood has caused immense damage in the vicinity of Lafayette, Indiana. The Wabash inundates all the bottom lands. Losses will foot up to a very large amount. Some persons estimate it as high as $1,000,000. A number of railroad bridges are down on the Toledo and Wabash road. The Deer Creek bridge, near Delphi, and a number of others are in a critical condition. The river has stpped rising.

Says the Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday:

Captain Pepper reports the burning of the Marmora on the Mississippi, opposite and below Lake Providence, La., on Saturday last, at 3 a. m. She had very little freight. The Alice Dean stopped by the wreck, but her service not been required, passed on for Cincinnati. During the freshet of 1832, there were sixty-three feet in the channel; in 1847 sixty-one feet; 1864, sixty-one feet one inch; and in 1867, fifty-four feet one inch. The river commenced receding yesterday, and will fall rapidly to-day. The Hawk passed here yesterday, with a tow of seven barges of coal. The Annie Laurie reshipped 450 barrels of Kanawha salt, on the Ida Rees for Louisville. The Potomac also reshipped some freight for Louisville on the Ida Rees.

Says the Enquirer, of same date: The towboat Grand Lake, with eleven barges, tried to ascend under the bridge yesterday, but her tow was too much for one trip.

The new steamer Elisha Bennett will arrive here from Brownsville this afternoon, and, after receivnig, her outfit, furniture, etc., etc., will at once take her place in the Pittsburgh & Brownsville Line. The Bennett, we have no doubt, will be one of the, if not the, finest passenger steamers ever introduced into the Monongahela river trade, and she will be commanded by that popular steamboatman, Captain M. A. Cox

The Ezra Porter cleared for St. Louis on Saturday evening, with a good trip, including a fair number of passengers, and she took on a considerable amount of railroad iron at the Point. She has also engagements below, having among other items, some fifteen hundred kegs of nails to take on at Wheeling.

Our Louisville exchanges are in escaties about the low pressure Richmond, now in process of construction at Madison. The Courier publishes a New York telegram, announcing the arrival from Europe of carpets—couldn't get any in this country fine or costly enough. We have no doubt the Richmond will be a very nice boat, perhaps a little ahead of anything ever got up about the Falls. That she will equal the Great Republic, however, either as regards capacity, style, speed, equipment, furnish, etc., etc., is not claimed, except by the Louisville and New Albany newspapers.

The Peoples' Line steamer Chieftan, was at Morgantown on Friday afternoon, which is some forty miles above Brownsville, and it is only once in a great while that a boat can ascend to that point, and only when the river is almost bank full.

The Minnie, Capt. A. H. Shaw, with Mr. A. C. McConnell in the office, is now the regular line boat for St. Louis, and will leave on Wednesday.

The America, Capt. T. H. Golding, is up for Nashville, and the Spray, Capt. Smith, is now in turn for Cincinnati and Louisville.

The Armenia, Capt. A. C. McCallum, is filling up steadily for New Orleans, and will be ready to leave at an early day this week.

The R. C. Grey cleared for Cincinnati on Saturday evening, with a good trip, and engagements below. She has plows to take on at Rochester, and nails at Wheeling.

The Ida Stockdale made a trial trip on Saturday, after which she came up to the main landing, and is now ready to receive freight for the Missouri river, clear up to the headwaters. Her engines performed admirably, and she handles like a top, a very important item for a boat plying on the Upper Missouri. We shall have more to say about this boat hereafter.

The Peerless arrived and cleared for Oil City on Saturday evening, with a very fair trip.

The towboat Lion sunk three barges of coal and a fuel-boat, on Thursday, by running into the timber at the mouth of Champaign, on the Virginia side.

The Kate Robinson and Leonidas arrived at New Orleans on Wednesday, and the Kate Putnam and Glendale are enroute from St. Louis to Pittsburgh. The Lorena, Julia and Maggie Hays were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Friday.

Cairo, the aquatic city, is in the full enjoyment of the largest water privileges, as will be seen by the following:

"The river is as high as the highest natural ground in the city, and twelve feet higher than the lowest. Eight feet nine inches is all we are prepared for, as that will bring the river over the top of the levee. The pumps have kept all the water out of the city thus far. Twenty-four feet more will make the river forty miles wide, which will probably be sufficient to carry off floods, and save Cairo from overflow."

We clip the following river items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Friday: Captain C. A. Dravo, late of the Quickstep, arrived here yesterday morning from Evansville, and left for Pittsburgh in last night's train. Dravo is good. The Silver Cloud No. 2 did not get away from this port on Wednesday evening, owing to some necessary repairs, but she departed last evening. The Ida Rees leaves for Louisville this evening, with 200 tons freight. The Ida Rees reshipped 1000 plows for New Orleans on the Amazon. At a meeting of the Directors of the Boatmens' Insurance Company yesterday, Capt. A. Clark Harton was elected Assistant Secretary of the company. Dora Agnew, Esq., of Parkersburg, is in the city. He contemplates clerking one of our Wheeling packets. The Sam Parker and barges arrived at New Orleans on Wednesday. All regular.
